REPUBLICANS RALLY IN COLUMBUS

VEECK OPTIMISTIC
OVER CUB CHANCES;
PREDICTS VICTORY

Chicago Prexy Visits Team Suffering From Slump

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The Cubs are going to win this pennant even though the issue may not be settled until the final series of the season."

With almost Pollyanna optimism William Veeck, president of the Chicago Cubs, made this assertion today in commenting on the thrilling, four-cornered National League pennant race between Chicago, St.
Louis, Brooklyn and New York—one of the dizzietest finishes in all the eighty-six pennant races which have marked the combined histories of the two major circuits.

Today, with millions of fans all over America watching the baseball derby with keen interest, the Cubs were leading the Cardinals and Robins by only one and one-half games, and with the skidding Cubs facing the Robins again this afternoon, and the Cardinals clashing with the Giants, the situation may become even more complicated by nightfall.

Veeck told International News Service that rumors of dissension among the faltering Cubs are absolutely baseless. He insisted the morale of the club was "splendid."
He characterized as "foolish" published reports that Root and Blake, both Cubs pitchers, had engaged in a fist fight in a taxicab. Veeck said the best of harmony prevails on the team and that the players are thinking of only two things, winning the National League pennant, and winning the world's championship.

Asked how Manager Joe McCarthy was taking the recent flop of the league-leading Cubs, Veeck replied: "Very grimly, naturally."

Veeck refused to discuss a report which was published here recently to the effect that he and McCarthy were at "outs" because he had taken sides with Rogers Hornsby who was said to have been at loggerheads with Manager McCarthy. The report had it that after Veeck sided with Hornsby, the owner of the club, William Wrigley, Jr., put an end to the internal strife by taking cudgels for McCarthy.

All reports of trouble among the Cubs were waved aside by Veeck with one eloquent gesture. In a word they were "bunk." Why, "go out and talk with Root and Blake if you don't believe they're right."

"The Cubs right now have just as good a chance of winning the flag as they did last year when they came through," said Veeck.
"While we have lost the services of Hornsby we have gained the services of Hartnett who was crippled all last year. That about equalizes things. Of course, we have had our share of bad luck but we're not complaining and we're going to fight our way through to victory."

President Veeck, who arrived in New York to see first hand what was wrong with the slipping Cubs, reported that Chicago and the middle west is greatly worked up over the hot pennant race. He said that the attendance at the ball games was remarkable, that Chicago experienced a record year last season and indications now are that 1930 will be even a bigger season from the standpoint of attendance.

COL. CALDWELL IS SEEKING DIVORCE

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 11.—Accusing her of being "intimate with many different men," and charging her with drinking to excess, Colonel Don L. Caldwell, of Mt. Washington, O., today had filed suit for divorce from Bessie M. Caldwell, of Cincinnati.

Colonel Caldwell also charges his wife with neglect and cruelty for the past ten years. He alleges that she often humiliated him in public with her "ribald and violent deemeanor."

The couple was married in Kenton County, Ky., April 8, 1911. Colonel Caldwell commanded the 147th Infantry regiment which was attached to the Rainbow Division during the World War.

An Announcement

To the People of Xenia and Greene County

In my opinion the new theater will be a real civic improvement and benefit, and the project should appeal to all of our citizens.

—D. W. CHERRY.

By The Board of Directors
Of Hibbert Theatres, Inc.

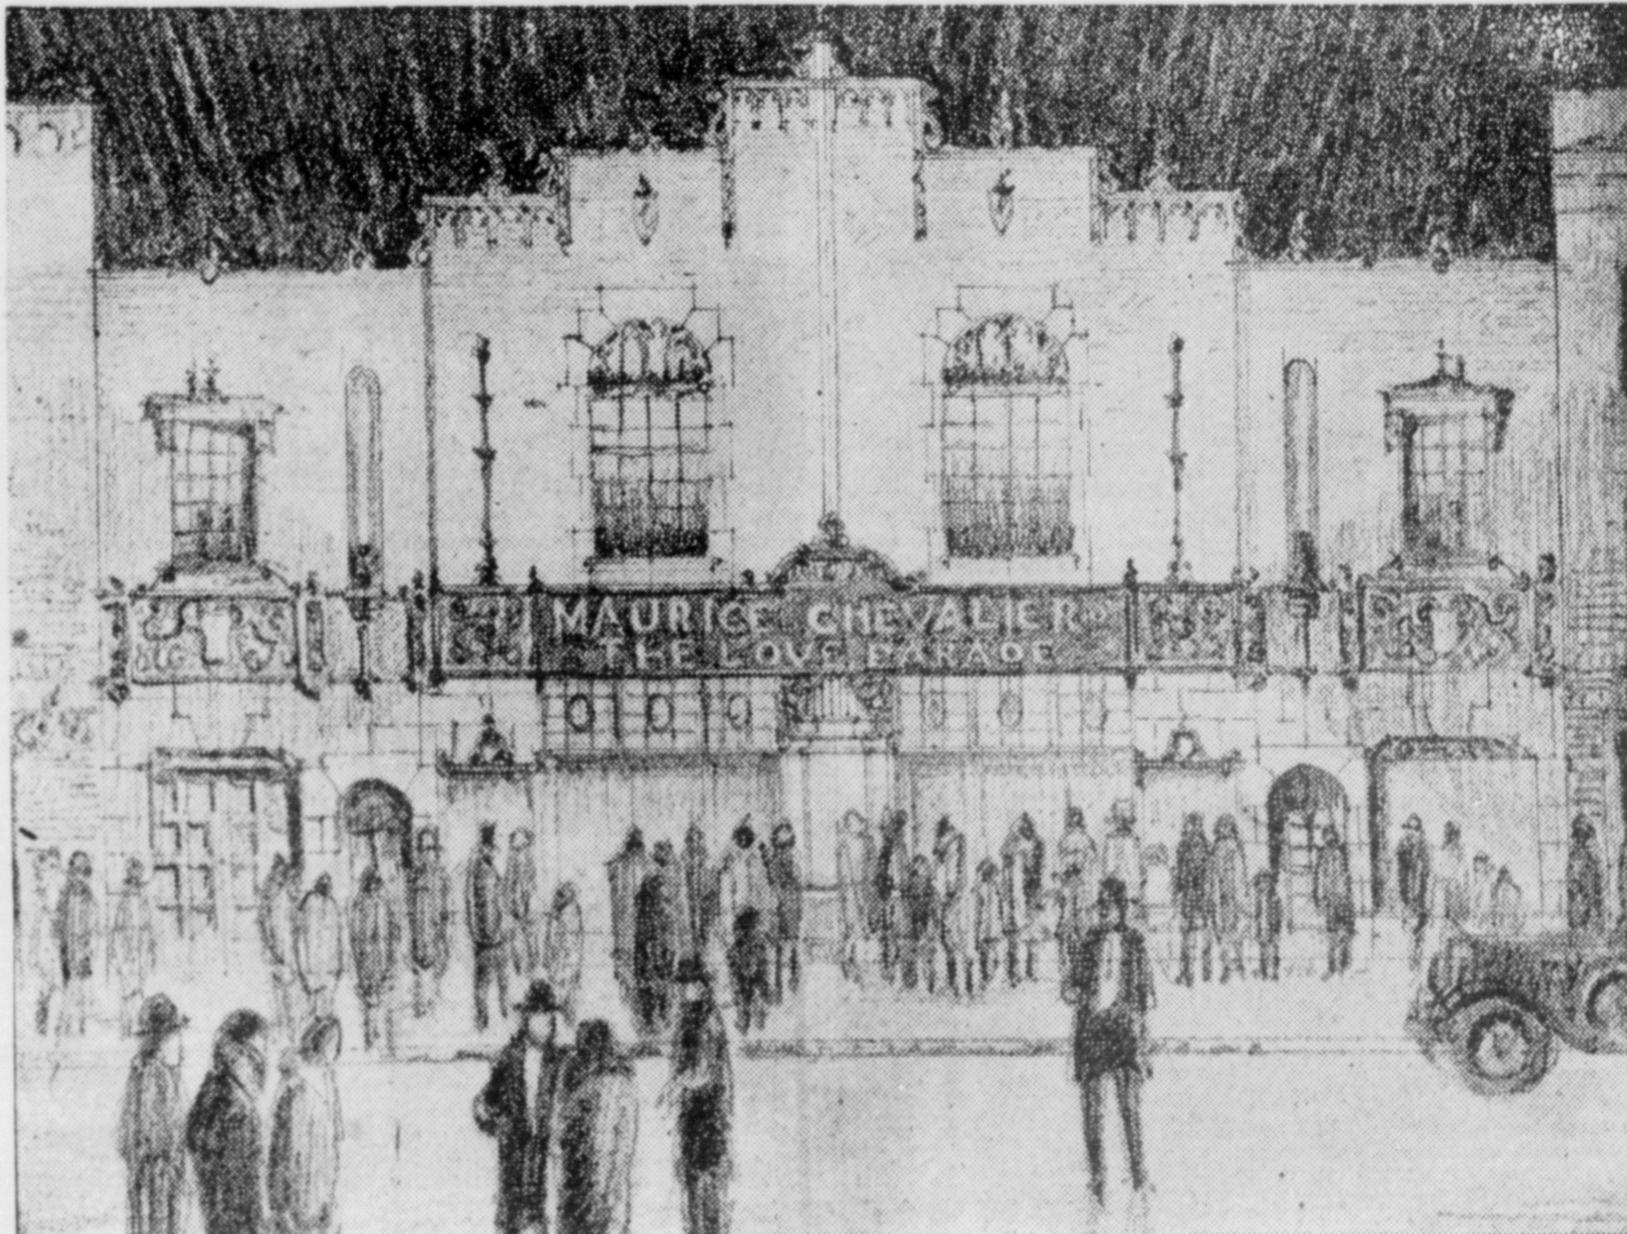

My ambition has always been to give the citizens of Xenia and Greene County a modern up-to-date playhouse.

With the co-operation of my fellow-citizens that ambition is about to be realized.

I have every reason to believe that this project means success for the investor and a big improvement to the city, and I take this opportunity to invite the citizens of Greene County to participate in our profits by buying one or more shares of stock.

—J. T. HIBBERT.

We have endeavored to offer the public a sound business investment, and expect to administer the affairs of the company with businesslike methods.

—H. S. LESOURD.

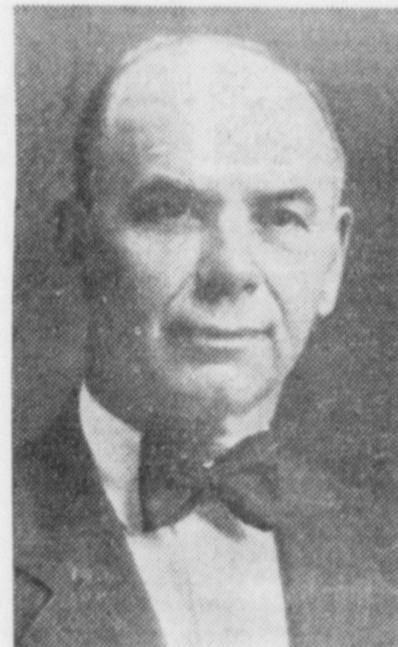

The plans and specifications for the new theater have been examined by me in detail, and in my opinion this theater will be modern and up to the minute in every respect.

The interior lighting and decorating are unusually artistic, and the plumbing and ventilating systems equal that of any of the large city theaters. It will be a pleasure to the theater public to attend this theater.

—FRANK McCURRAN.

On Tuesday, September 9th, bids were received by the Board of Directors for the construction of the new theatre, with the purpose of letting the contract within the next few days, in order that the work on this beautiful new addition to Xenia's business district, may commence at once, and with the expectation of having the theatre fully completed and in operation by January 1st, 1931. Plans call for the construction of a building at the new location on West Main St., providing a theatre of nine hundred and ten (910) seats, and in addition thereto a store room on the first floor, immediately east of the theatre entrance, and also a suite of offices on the second floor. Exterior and interior will be the last word in modern architecture, and will be a real credit to the community. A large stage and orchestra pit will make possible the presentation of local plays on a much larger and more satisfactory scale than heretofore, and will also afford the possibility of presenting other attractions, which in the past, have not been shown in Xenia, because of insufficient stage accommodations. Needless to say, many more people will be attracted to Xenia by this new center of theatrical amusement.

All legal requirements of the State of Ohio, have been complied with, the entire proposition thoroughly investigated by the Blue Sky Department of the State, and the company granted a license to sell its stock. Every possible step has been taken to protect the investor and insure success of the investment.

—HARRY D. SMITH.

We Extend An Invitation

Mr. Hibbert, the President of the Company, and all of the Board of Directors, wish the public to understand that the theater will be built with capital furnished by local people, and that none of the financing of the project is coming from any outside interests or capital. The project is in no way connected or associated with any chain theater organization.

In so far as possible, the Company expects to employ local labor in the building of the theater, and thus not only during the construction of same, will help improve business conditions in Xenia, but after completion of the building, by reason of attractions afforded, expects to bring to Xenia, people who will patronize our local merchants, while in the city.

Stock will be sold in units of one share of Preferred Stock and one share of Common Stock. The Preferred Stock has a par value of $100.00, and pays 7 per cent cumulative dividends, payable quarterly. The Common Stock has a declared value of $10.00 a share, and thus the unit of one share of each is being sold at $110.00 per unit, or in multiples thereof.

Until the new building is completed, the offices of the Company will be maintained at the Bijou Theater, on Green Street, which theater is now owned and operated by the Company, and in the earnings of which, stock holders will participate, as well as in the receipts of the new theater, when placed in operation.

We will be glad to furnish you with more detailed information. Do not hesitate to make inquiry, as it places you under no obligation to us to investigate our proposition. We think we have something worthy of your consideration, otherwise we would not be associated with it. Drop in at our office, or call H. C. Mullins, director of sales.

Investigation of the past income and profits of the theater business in Xenia convinces me that the new theater will be a financial success and a good business proposition.

—H. C. SOHN.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE SERIOUS OFFENSE—But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.—Matthew 18:6.

THE LAWS AND THE WOMEN

According to the National Woman's party, the laws of many states contain provisions that are unfair to women. They complain that in some of them the laws still place full control over children, full right to them after marital separation, and full ownership of all mutual possessions, in the name of the husband.

The law of one state contains the statement that the reason why the father takes precedence is because of "the excellence of his sex." Considering the way many husbands behave, the wives will say that such an assumption of male superiority has not yet been demonstrated.

In former days when few women had property in their own right, and few of them knew anything about business, there may have seemed some reason for giving husbands more control over property. It is claimed today that women possess some 40 per cent of the property of the nation. So they are getting a lot of experience in managing property.

They fill so many commercial positions, that they have demonstrated ability to handle questions of private business. They are not inclined to waste more money than the men. While it may be said that they spend more on dress, yet they do not spend so much on forms of dissipation. This is a day of equal partnership between men and women. If the laws of any state fail to give the women an equal deal on property questions, such laws are probably wrong.

As to the care of children after marital separations, it would seem as if the wife was at least as likely to be fit to control them as the husband. The laws can not treat men and women precisely alike, since they differ in various ways. Yet it would seem as if the laws should give them full equality as respects property and children.

RETAIL SELLING KEEPS UP

A survey of retail trade made by the U. S. Department of Commerce makes a showing that will surprise doubtful and pessimistic people. It was discovered that the total sales of 523 retail establishments located in 24 cities, decreased only about six per cent in money value during the first six months of 1930, as compared with the same period of 1929.

While this is a substantial decline, it has to be remembered that prices have fallen quite a bit during this period. It is possible that the volume of goods sold in these stores has been equal to that of last year, and anyway it can only be a very small fraction behind.

It has been recently figured that industrial activity has been from 10 to 15 per cent below normal during recent months. Now if the people are buying practically the same quantity of goods that they bought in 1929, but are producing 10 to 15 per cent less, one can form an opinion how long it will take before there is a shortage in most lines of production. The chances are strong that it will not be many weeks before thousands of retail merchants discover that their stocks are short, and they will be telephoning to jobbers and manufacturers to hurry up some new shipments.

One thing that has helped to keep trade well up, is the liberal policy of advertising adopted through this quiet period by many concerns. By telling the people what they had to sell, and showing the public that it would pay to buy goods now, trade has been kept moving very actively to these well advertised stores. Some of them may have sold more than they did in the boom year of 1929.

There is every reason to expect an active revival of trade within a short time. The business history of our country shows that trade depressions are always short, and they end before people expect them to.

TIME TO GET BUSY

The coming of autumn weather should mean the revival of community activities. Our schools and churches resume their labors. People have about completed their vacations, and are ready to settle down in their usual activities of the fall and winter.

Now is the time to push ahead for all movements for community betterment. It is the time for our organizations here to plan more active campaigns for their various purposes. It is an excellent time to plan efforts for needed community improvements. It is a fine time for the business men to consider efforts by which they can enlarge their trade, and make their community more of a business center.

The WAY of the WORLD

By GROVE PATTERSON

OVERALLS

Let's hope that every boy who is starting to college this fall doesn't imagine he is fitting himself merely to wear a white collar. Some big and important jobs are held by men who wear overalls, who work with their hands. Education, even if you get any, isn't designed to relieve you of work. It is to make you more useful and more happy, to help you better to adjust yourself to life. If you seek education merely for his fellow man, he said:

THE STORY OF YOUR TOWN

Oakland, California, has a book used in the public schools, called "Oakland, A Story for Children." This is a good idea for other cities and towns to follow. Boys and girls ought to learn early the history of the place in which they live. They will more quickly become good citizens. They will be more likely to stay at home and add their bit to successful community life. Most of us look over the fence and wish to be somewhere else. We seek a change of circumstances when what we ought to seek is a change of self. The sooner you get really interested in the place where you are the sooner you will amount to something.

ON ALL OCCASIONS

Are we not likely to think that what we call small occasions demand small attention while large occasions demand large attention? For example some public speakers make little preparation when they think they are filling an unimportant engagement. Who can say when an engagement is unimportant? Who can say what kind of minds are out there in front of the speaker? Don't do anything if you are not willing to give the time and devotion to do it as well as you can. Every occasion when you have something distinct and definite to do is a big occasion. Life is too short to waste it in doing "half-baked" jobs.

WOMEN AND PEACE

Perhaps the foremost hope for world peace lies in the persistence of women. One learns that the 26 national sections of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom have sent a petition throughout the world demanding disarmament. Women have so much more persistence than men, are so much more likely to get what they want, that their enlistment in the active cause of peace is the most forceful and the movement can get.

Answers to questions of information and fact can be obtained by writing to Central Press Bureau, P. O. Box 126 Washington, D. C., and enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope. No answers will be given to marital, medical or legal questions.

Is there any method of preventing the wall paper over steam radiators from becoming more soiled than that of the rest of the room? Wiping off the walls once a week with a wall brush will aid in preventing this discoloration. Increased circulation of the air about a steam radiator, which carries dust from the floor to the walls, is the cause of this condition.

Average

What is the age at which the normal child should graduate from high school?

The average age of high school graduates is 18 years.

Raincoats

Is there a method which can be used to prevent a raincoat from becoming stiff?

Frequent sponging when not in use will keep a raincoat in good condition.

Sense of Direction

How is it that carrier pigeons are able to determine the direction home when they have nothing to guide them?

It is believed by most scientists that this unusual ability in pigeons is a combination of keen eyesight and instinct.

Immigration

In Fact Also

NOTE

The following pamphlets may be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin and a large stamped, self-addressed envelope for each to Central Press Bureau, P. O. Box 126, Washington D. C.: "Who's Who in Hollywood," "Swimming," "Seeing Washington," Charles P. Stewart's treatise on "Our Government," and "The World War."

It is the truth that when congress authorizes one of the government departments, like that of the navy or the interior, to proceed with some big undertaking, such as laying down the keel of a battleship or building the largest dam in the world, it has quite a habit of adding:

"Now wait until you get the money to start work with."

This happened in the case of Boulder dam.

The dam is authorized but the necessary $185,000,000 to build it has not yet been appropriated.

All that the interior department has actually available is a little fund of $10,660,000 for a few preliminary operations. These, indeed, it has already in hand.

A contract has been let for a 25 or 30-mile railroad, to bring supplies from the nearest already-established transportation line to the dam site, a cog road is to be built, down into the canyon, claims of various sorts are being adjusted, facilities will be installed as fast as possible, $5,000,000 worth of tunnels are to be driven and a model town is being laid out for the occupancy of the dam's force of workmen—when the cash is forthcoming to pay them.

BUT THERE MAY yet be considerable delay in a real start on the dam proper.

Seven states are affected by the project.

Also Mexico, because, as everyone knows, the Colorado river empties into the Gulf of California, on the Mexican side of the international boundary—but that does not matter; Mexico's rights already have been recognized in a mutually satisfactory treaty.

"Yes, tell my fellow man that Sim Ford may have sinned; but he never charged the public for bread and butter."

Simeon Ford was the man who installed the blackboard and chalk in the washrooms of the Grand Union with the sign:

"If you feel that urge to write down here, please write on the blackboard."

SOME VILLAGE!

If figures impress you, paste these co-related numerals in the crown of your fall lid!

An intensive study of the City of New York reveals a steady natural growth surpassed by no city of ancient or modern time. In ten years the nation added only 10,000,000 to its population; but New York City increased by 1,300,000. In a twenty-mile circle from the center of London are 7,864,130 inhabitants, and in the same area New York City houses 9,857,882, an increase for New York in ten years of over 6,955,193 inhabitants occupying an area of 43,424 acres.

Nearly 7,000,000 and most of them looking forward to the day and dreaming of the time when they'll be able to shake free from this Circle of cities, "get out somewhere" and live as white folk should.

D. E. Martin Takes Police Trophy; Women Compete

More than 1,000 sportsmen and their families are estimated to have attended the yearly picnic and all-day outing sponsored by the Greene County Fish and Game Protective Association Wednesday at David Keiter's sugar grove four and a half miles south of Xenia opposite White Chapel Church.

Slightly cool but fair weather prevailed for the occasion. A community dinner was enjoyed in noon, those in attendance having brought well filled baskets.

Seventy-three cash and merchandise prizes valued at more than $250 were awarded in the various athletic events for men and women which constituted the program of entertainment in the morning and afternoon.

The feature event on the program was the first annual match for the new Xenia Police Trophy which attracted twenty entrants and was won by D. E. Martin, Xenia, who obtained possession of the cup for one year only. If won three years in succession, however, the trophy may be retained permanently.

Contestants were required to fire six shots, rapid fire, in twenty-four seconds from a distance of twenty-five yards at a regulation police target. Only a revolver or pistol, caliber .38 or larger, limited to a six-inch barrel, could be used in this match.

Mr. Martin recorded a score of 45 out of a possible 60 points.

When Griff was a kid in Bloomington, Ill., a quack medicine show boy, he was a poor boy and the barker, in order to start off his sales, held up a bright silver dollar and started to auction it off.

"How much am I bid?" he shouted, "for this silver dollar?"

"There were no bids and the doctor got a bit excited."

Come, come, gents, nickel a dime—anything at all."

Suddenly Griff, standing in a front row, said, "I'll bid a nickel."

"It's yours for the taking," the doctor declared, "hand up the nickel."

"Take it out of the dollar and give me 95 cents change." Griff replied cannily.

Since writing the above we have had many recollection this story has been a familiar ring about it. We noticed somewhere or other not long ago of where the same dialogue was attributed to Rockefeller or some other big personage to demonstrate his financial genius in his youth.

Pinky Wilson might take a tip from Major Ralph Sasse, head coach of the West Point Military Academy football team, who has found a novel use for old automobile tires. Strewn around the football field, the Army mentor runs his grid squad through broken field practice by having the can-dates step into the circle of tires as they run.

Xenia Central High School grid candidates, if they expect to play football this fall, must be able to present to school authorities athletic certificates properly filled out and signed by a physician and their parents. These cards are now available at the school. This precautionary measure is taken in order to make sure the boys are physically fit to take part in this strenuous sport.

The high school football gridiron at Cox Athletic Field is in finer condition for 1930 than at any previous time due to the careful attention that has been given this summer. The field was resodded last spring, the number of games staged as well as daily practice making it necessary to have a heavy sod covering.

SAYRE BEATS MANN IN TOURNEY

Earl E. Mann passed out of the picture in the annual President's Cup Tournament at the Xenia Country Club when he was defeated, one up, by H. L. Sayre in a semi-final round match of twenty-seven holes Wednesday afternoon.

An extra nine-hole round was necessary to decide the winner. Sayre, by virtue of his victory, reached the tourney finals and will play the winner of the W. C. Craig-Willard Hult semi-final match.

In the "Brown Derby" tournament, a consolation affair for those golfers who failed to qualify for the President's Cup play, T. C. Long defeated Dr. H. C. Messenger, three up and one to play Wednesday.

CHAMPIONS LAUNCH BOWLING SEASON

The Greene County Lumber Co., quint, bowling champions of the city for three straight years, will embark Thursday night on its 1930-31 campaign in quest of a fourth consecutive title.

The champions will face the strong Red Wing Co. team in their inaugural match in the Recreation League at 7:30 p. m. at the Recreation alleys.

The Gr. Co. L. Co. team is it anything supposed to be stronger than ever before with the acquisition of new talent for the coming British rule.

BOB FINLAY HEADS DOWNTOWNS HERE

Robert Finlay was elected "pro" and Thomas Hollencamp was chosen "steward" of The Downtown Country Club for the coming year at the annual dinner-meeting of the club Wednesday night at the Trebein Tavern, Dayton Pike.

Offices of "pro" and "steward" are equivalent to those of president and secretary-treasurer. F. W. Frame and John Purdom are the retiring officers.

Twenty-five members were present Wednesday night when the organization resumed its bi-monthly dinner-meetings. Gatherings of the club were discontinued during the summer months.

Members voted not to sponsor a bowling team here this season.

John Purdom was named chairman of a permanent entertainment committee which will serve throughout the year.

SEARCH FOR FAME TURNS ARMY FROM STAGE, MOVIES TO RADIO

RADIO HAS SUPERCEDED THE STAGE and the MOVIES as the MECCA for the AMATEURS

Alice Nichols

Madge Tucker Vernon Radcliffe

BY RUBY WEIL

Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—"You ought to be on the stage."

The kindly but thoughtless praise of neighbors to amateurs in school days or church entertainments has sent thousands of young men and women to New York and disillusion.

The advent of the movies provided a new channel for this army of the ambitious, and Hollywood, Cal., became the new mecca.

Now radio has taken its place as a lure for those who hope to win fame and fortune over night. During the summer vacations, the New York studios have been besieged by hopefuls from far afield, in addition to the customary hordes from nearby.

Fame for Few

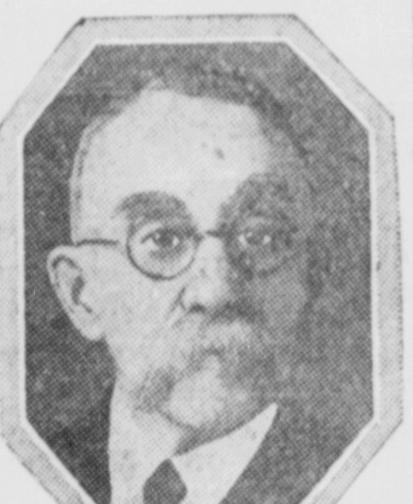

And even as the legitimate stage and the motion picture studio have proved the way to fame for only a few of the many who hoped, so radio, too, finds only a small proportion acceptable. Of the 130 or so heard each week in the vocal and instrumental auditions at a large chain broadcasting company, merely 1 per cent pass the test, even though no one is refused even several auditions.

"Many come here, often from out of town, proud of the fact they

MAN, 88, FINDS LASTING RELIEF IN NEW KONJOLA

III For Years, Discouraged By Many Failures, New Medicine Brings Health

"At my age, 88, I had no idea that any medicine would help me," said Mr. D. L. Gosling, National Military Home, Dayton. "I suffered for years and all the medicines and treatments I tried proved worthless. I had stomach trouble so badly that I could not eat a meal without bloating. Coffee or milk caused me to become ill. I lost weight, strength and energy.

"I took ten bottles of Konjola. That was two and one-half years ago. I have not taken Konjola for two years now but I still feel fine. I actually feel twenty years younger than I did two years ago. I have told more than fifty friends about Konjola and I shall never cease to praise the medicine that did so much for me.

Age is no bar to the merits of this master-medicine. When given a real test, usually from six to eight weeks, Konjola has made a record that would challenge belief were the actual facts not known and verified.

Konjola is a new and different medicine of 32 ingredients, 22 of them the juices of roots and herbs long known for their medicinal value. Konjola works quickly and thoroughly at the very root, the fount of the ills of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. Konjola is not designed to give mere temporary relief, but to bring new, glorious and lasting health.

Konjola is sold in Xenia, Ohio at the Gallaher Drug Store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

over night. My advice to these ambitious young people is to stay at home, and certainly to try to get experience in their local radio studios before they come here.

"But in even larger numbers than the amateurs, we have vaudeville and musical comedy actors coming to us. Most of them are accustomed to yelling to fill the theater, and can't become accustomed to the idea that they must keep their voices low before the microphone.

Special Technique
"Radio requires a special technique. Many real artists are no good over the radio, while some crooner or soprano with a voice that would never carry in concert may sound very well."

"Mike fight" is a common thing. Old actors have it worse than amateurs; they say it is worse than first nights."

"In addition to the microphone test, radio aspirants now must be prepared for television tests. In the fall we shall begin television auditions and probably have some novelty programs, although it may be several years before television is broadcast regularly."

As in the music auditions, the dramatic auditions are sought by many amateurs. Only about thirty persons are heard a week, before a committee headed by Vernon Radcliffe. Of those heard—and here, too, no one's request for an audition is rejected, although more than a month may elapse before the audition can take place, because of the large number of requests—those showing some unusual voice quality are accepted for training. It has been found that everyone needs special microphone training for this type of work.

To Miss Madge Tucker falls the task of handling children's auditions, although they sometimes go

Glare of Footlights Lure Society Debs

No Longer Content to Watch The Show Society
Debutantes Find Greater Glamor on Stage
And Now Adorn Cast of Many Leading Productions.

ROSAMUND PINCHOT, RUTH TESTER, MARIAJANE RICE & JUNE BLOSSOM

By ALICE ALDEN
NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—There's many a society debutante just now getting wrinkles in her pretty white forehead while she ponders the problem as to which side of the footlights offers the most happiness. Should she be content to sit in the third row center and watch the show with a bored or indifferent escort who only wakes up when the chorus comes tripping out? Or should she pocket her pride, pack up her dancing practice rompers, and make the round until she finds some producer who will give her a chance to prove that she is not just another society bud in search of a new thrill?

FUN OR WORK
While many of the country's most beautiful debutantes are wondering whether it would be fun to go on the stage, others have gone about the task and are just now in the throes of rehearsals where unkind stage managers and producers are sometimes just a bit cynical about "those Park Avenue dames." There's beautiful June Blossom, whose name sounds like a "nom de theater," but happens to be her real name in marriage to an actor, Louis Calhern. Rosamund Pinchot is another society woman who has won fame as an actress.

And then there's delightful Hope Williams, member of one of Gotham's finest and most conservative families. Convinced she had stage talent, she determined to get a theatrical producer to share her convictions. Arthur Hopkins agreed to help her, with the result that she became one of New York's most popular leading women. She starred in "Holiday" and "Paris Bound," and will no doubt shortly be seen in another role that suits her crisp, clear-cut speech and manner. Her forte is comedy, otherwise she might have attained the dramatic triumphs won by another society girl, Miss Katherine Cornell. Miss Cornell, a member of a prominent Buffalo family, married a young actor and deserted the ranks of society. The young actor is now famous as a theatrical director. He is Guthrie McClintic and has directed Katherine Cornell in some of her most notable successes. With these examples in mind, there is little wonder that society girls are turning to the stage with increasing frequency, and perhaps many of them hope to make as good matrimonial catches as their professional sisters have done.

DANCED TO A CAREER
Miss Blossom has literally danced her way to a stage career. She has appeared as an exhibition dancer at many fêtes for charity. At one of these affairs she was spotted by Lee Shubert, who asked her if she had ever nourished thespian aspirations. The result of the talk is June Blossom's present appearance, with the promise, if she makes good, of a leading part in a new comedy imported from London, a drawing room type of play.

All the way from Dallas, Texas, recently came lovely eighteen-year-old Marialyne Rice to New York. The winsome granddaughter of the late Nathaniel Rice, first vice-president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railway, was supposedly headed for a season at Southampton and Newport. But instead she found her way to the sanctum of George White and persuaded him that a society girl could sometimes "hoof" as well as a professional dancer. She got the job, and is dancing her way into the hearts of theater-goers in "Flying High."

MUSICAL COMEDY WINS
While this year's crop of society girls yearning for the glamor of the footlights, seems to be headed for musical comedy, society girls and women in former years have turned to and won success in the legitimate field. There was beautiful Julia Hoyt, who lent her dark beauty to the stage and won tremendous success in arduous roles. Critics do not treat her as a society darling. They scrutinize and report on her work minutely and with exacting criticism. She was universally acclaimed for her work in "Serena Blandish" a few seasons back.

It is interesting to note that while her marriage with a blue-blooded, Lydig Hoyt, ended in a divorce, she has found much happiness.

CATTLE FEEDERS HEAR TALKS BY STOCK SPECIALISTS AT MEETING

Forty-six cattle feeders from Greene and adjoining counties received the latest information on feeder conditions and prices from representatives of the Kansas City and St. Paul markets, university extension experts and cooperative association representatives at a meeting in the assembly room of the Court House Wednesday evening.

D. F. Okeson, Kansas City, and H. E. Crabbe, St. Paul, were brought to Ohio by the livestock cooperative associations for a series of special meetings with cattle feeders. These two markets supply most of the cattle coming into the state for feeding purposes. They discussed with local farmers the prices and conditions on these markets.

H. L. Evans, sales manager and Frank B. Teegardin, field representative of the National Order Buying Co., and J. M. Heizer, publicity agent for the Ohio Livestock Cooperative Association also appeared on the program.

Mr. Evans said their organization is now prepared to finance feeder cattle operations through money made available by the Agricultural Marketing Act. Up to 90 per cent of the appraisal value of the cattle will be loaned at six per cent for a nine months period. At the expiration of this period a reappraisal may be made and the loan extended, he said.

L. P. McCann, beef cattle specialist of Ohio State University, discussed the feeding problem brought about by the extended drought and resultant short corn crops. He suggested feeding corn through the silo and the use of such substitutes as barley, soybeans and wheat. He stated that the number of cattle on feed for market in the eleven corn belt states were reported to be one percent smaller than one year ago, and that the states east of the Mississippi River has eight per cent less cattle on feed than a year ago. Due to the feed shortage a rather sharp decrease in numbers of cattle on feed is expected this year. Consumer demand for the first half of 1930 was 3.5 per cent less than the same period last year. However, the 1929 consumption was the largest for several years. This has resulted in a seventeen per cent drop on retail beef prices and a thirty-five per cent drop in prices paid the producers. Mr. McCann emphasized the advantages of feeding calves as compared to yearlings and two year olds, stating that calves require only sixty-seven per cent and yearlings eighty-five per cent as much feed

The Theater

Birth of a baby girl Monday to Florence Vidor, moving picture actress and wife of Jascha Heifetz, concert violinist, did not become known for a few days after the happy event. "The mother and baby are doing very well," Heifetz said when interviewed. "I am very happy. We have not yet decided what we shall name the baby." Heifetz who is 29 years of age, married Miss Vidor secretly in New York where the babe was born.

The Xenia Little Theater Guild is getting into action for the season. An organization meeting Tuesday evening resulted in the appointment of committees for the year. For obvious reasons names of these committee members are not made public.

The Guild is reported to have a new friend here in the Rev. Lawrence Wessel, new pastor of St. Brigid Church, who sponsored a similar movement at California, Ohio, scene of his labors before coming to Xenia.

Mrs. L. S. Hyman has returned home after spending two weeks with relatives in Cincinnati.

The first frost of the fall season made its appearance here, but it was light and did no damage to vegetation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelble left for Lenoir City, Tenn., to spend two weeks on a visit.

Divorce, in Hollywood, is becoming such a common affair, that it is not permitted to upset ordinary living in any way.

An example is the fact that Betty Compson, whose divorce papers from James Cruze, the director, haven't grown cold, has been signed to play the feminine lead in the director's next picture.

Stranger still, the picture is to be called: "She Got What She Wanted." Meanwhile Hugh Trevor, young leading man, continues to squire the blonde actress at Hollywood parties and to supper clubs. The problem of the Hollywood hostess is involved by the numerous divorces as, in a dinner party of twenty, it would require considerable maneuvering not to seat at least one pair of ex-mates together. The fact that friendship survives divorce so frequently in the film colony, simplifies the usual embarrassment that might be expected in this case.

DIG SPROUTED POTATOES IMMEDIATELY

Numerous reports are being received that the new potatoes are sprouting and starting to grow. In some instances the new shoots are above the ground, leaves have formed, and they are growing in the same manner as when planted in the spring. Some cases have been observed where these new plants were setting small tubers.

Ordinarily, the new potato tubers are dormant throughout the growing season and they will not sprout until three or four months after digging. This dormant period can be broken by treating the tubers with certain chemicals. The temperature of the storage also influences the length of dormancy; in a warm storage potatoes start sprouting earlier than in a cool storage. The extremely dry and hot weather which has prevailed this season has broken the dormant period of the tubers while they are still in the ground and attached to the green mother plant. This hot, dry weather has been

Ordinance No. 422

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NOTES OF THE CITY OF XENIA IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF ACQUIRING A POLICE AUTOMOBILE FOR THE PUBLIC WELFARE, SAFETY, AND PROTECTION OF THE CITIZENS OF SAID CITY.

WHEREAS, this Commission has requested the City Auditor to issue his certificate as to the estimated life of the improvement to be constructed from the proceeds of the bonds herein-after referred to and of the notes to be issued in anticipation of the issuance of said bonds, and the City Auditor has certified to this Commission such estimated life as exceeding five (5) years, and such notes as two (2) years;

SECTION 6. Said notes shall be first offered to the Sinking Fund Trustees of the City, and so many of the same as shall not be taken by said Trustees shall be sold at private sale by the City Auditor but for not less than par and accrued interest, and the proceeds from such sale, except any premium and accrued interest thereon, and the amount thereof necessary for the payment of interest prior to the maturity of such notes, shall be paid into the proper fund and used for the purpose aforesaid, and for no other purpose.

Any premium and accrued interest, and the amount necessary for the payment of interest prior to their maturity, shall be transferred to the Trustees of the Sinking Fund to be applied by them in the payment of principal and interest of said notes in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 7. Said notes shall be the full general obligation of the City, and the full faith, credit and revenue of said City are hereby pledged for the prompt payment of the same.

The par value to be received from the sale of the bonds anticipated by said notes, and any excess fund resulting from the issuance of such notes shall, to the extent necessary, be used only for the retirement of said notes at maturity, together with interest thereon, and is hereby pledged for such purpose.

SECTION 8. During the year or years while such notes run there shall be levied on all the taxable property in the City of Xenia, Ohio, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually, not less than that which would have been levied if bonds had been issued without the prior issue of such notes. Such tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, levied and extended upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers, in the same manner, and at the same time that taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in preference to all other items, and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said tax levies hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund, which together with the interest collected on the same, shall be irreversibly pledged for the payment of the principal and interest of said notes at the rate of six (6%) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. Such notes shall be dated September 1, 1931, and shall mature on March 1, 1932; provided, however, that such notes shall be redeemable at any thirty (30) day period, or multiple thereof, prior to their maturity. Such notes shall be issued and delivered in such number and such denominations as may be requested by the purchaser of such notes.

SECTION 9. The City Auditor is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor.

SECTION 10. That this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Passed this 2nd day of Sept.

1930.

F. M. CHAMBLISS,
President of City Commission.

Attest: H. A. HIGGINS,
Clerk.
